CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. Windsor W. Demaine, who has been ill with influenza, is able to be out again.

Mr. C. H. Zimmerman, who has been confined to his home by illness, is able to be out again.

The different fraternal organizations of the city will resume meetings next week now that the ban against such will be lifted Sunday.

A big door last night fell on D. K. Garnett at the wharf of the Mutual Ice Company and severely injured his back. Mr. Garnett was taken to the Alexandria Hospital and treated by Dr. Hugh McGuire.

A joint meeting of the committee on police and board of police commissioners will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow night when the question increasing the membership of the police force will be considered. A report of the committee will be made to city council at its next regular meeting.

The gas today has been very bad. Complaints regarding the poor quality of gas being furnished were general and last night many persons were unable to get a sufficient supply to cook with. The same condition prevailed today. Just how long the people are to suffer is problematical.

William B. Dulany has sold to Norman Contee a house and lot on the west side of Columbus street between Duke and Wolfe streets and he also has sold to the same party a house and lot on the south side of Wythe street between Patrick and Henry Streets.

A shed in the yard of the residence of Mrs. Mary A. Sweeney, 408 Prince street, took fire shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon caused by burning trash in the yard. The blaze was extinguished with a stream from the motor engine before much damage was done.

The Red Cross knitters are asked to return all finished articles which they have on hand to the Red Cross workroom, corner of King and Pitt streets, Wednesday or Thursday of this week between 1 0a. m., and noon. The sock knitters can secure wool at teh same time. Next week wool will be distributed at Lee Camp Hall on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday between 10 a. m., and noon.

TURKS IN SERIOUS PLIGHT

Gen. Allenby's Latest Victory Almost Certain to Cause Ottoman Peace Bid.

London, Oct. 29.—The important city of Aleppo was occupied by British cavalry and armored cars Saturday morning, says a British official statement on operations in Syria and Palestine. The statement reads:

"Our advanced cavalry and armored cars occupied Aleppo on the morning of October 26, after overcoming slight opposition."

The Turks at the beginning of last week were defending Aleppo with 12,000 men, but these retired to the north. No news has yet been received that the railway junction, six miles beyond Aleppo, has been captured, but it is not believd that the Turks will attempt to defend it ,and the fall of the railway junction will mean that a vital artery of the enemy communications has been cut.

The fall of Aleppo is expected to be a decisive factor in determining Turkey to sue for peace.

SOLDIERS CARRY MAIL

Soldiers as letter carriers made their initial appearance yesterday in Washington, taking the place at the Washington postoffice of twelve letter carriers who have entered military service. They are limited service men who have been detached from duty at Camp Lee, Va., and assigned to Washington for this duty on an indefinite furlough.

These men were out yesterday with letter carriers familiar with their routes in order to learn the city. They will shortly be sent out alone.

DEMAND IMPEACHMENT

German Political Parties Appoint Commission to Consider Measure.

Zurich, Oct. 29.—The political parties of the Left, in the German Reichstag, have appointed a commission to consider the responsibility and impeachment of the chancellors and foreign secretaries for their war actions since the beginning of the conflict, it was learned from a German source today.

Copenhagen, Oct. 29.—Peace riots took place outside of the Russian legation in Berlin yesterday in connection with five electioneering meetings of independent Socialists, it was learned from that city today.

The rioters demanded the removal of the Kaiser, and the proclamation of a German republic. The police interfered and made several arrests.

The Hague, Oct. 29.—New threats of revolution came out of Germany today.

The social democrats in the course of manifestations threatened to organize the labor masses and remove the Kaiser and every other hindrance to peace unless the Kaiser abdicates.

London, Oct. 29.— Austria-Hungary is on the brink of civil war. Peace and food riots are raging throughout the Dual Monarchy.

A dispatch from Zurich today said that serious riots had broken out in Budapest on Sunday and that the entrance to the royal palace was wrecked.

The Magyar national committee is demanding the dissolution of the Reichsrath.

Zurich, Oct. 29.—A revolution has broken out in Montenegro, according to a dispatch from Laibach today. The revolutionists, which include Albanian soldiers, have seized Cettinje, Scutari, and Rieka. Austro-Hungarians are evacuating the country.

TWO SHOT TO DEATH

Alleged Innocent Remark Concerning Patriotism Leads to Double Murder.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—A double murder occurred Saturday morning on the sidewalk at Ninth and Wharton streets while many persons were passing on their way to or from church services. In the wild shooting in which three men took part a pedestrian was hit in the leg, but not seriously wounded. Several others narrowly missed the flying bullets.

The dead men are Frank Marino, 31 years old, and Sebastian Cordano, 41 years old. According to the police, Marion shot and killed Cordano, whereupon Marino was immediately shot and killed by Nicola Rienzi, 31 years old.

Joseph Politaro, 60 years old, was the pedestrian shot in the leg. He had no hand in the fight, and was trying his best to put distance between himself and the scene of the trouble when hit. The shooting scattered a dozen or more persons who came along when the trouble was at its height. They took refuge in doorways or wherever they could.

The police say the cause of the double killing was an appparently innocent remark made by one of the men about the patriotism of the other.

Rienzi attempted to make his escape, but was caught a short distance from the place of the shooting.

KLONDIKERS AMONG LOST

Prospectors and Million in Gold Go Down With Wrecked Ship.

Dawson, Y. T., Oct. 29.—Some of the best known residents of the Klondike gold country were lost when the Princess Sophia plunged off Vanderbilt reef Friday night. Gold producers here today said they understood the Princess Sophia carried a big gold shipment, possibly worth $1,000,000 or more.

William Scouz, of Seattle and Dawson, who hoisted the first bucket of gold gravel on the fabulously rich Klondike creek, was aboard.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to thank all friends for the kindness and sympathy shown me during the long period of my daughter, Marion M. Baker's illness.

Her Mother, Sarah M. Baker.

COLLAPSE OF AUSTRIA

Dual Monarchy's Unconditional Surrender Imminent —Approves President's Ideas.

Berne, via Paris, Oct. 29.—Austria-Hungary, in a note answering President Wilson's last message to her, accepts all of his conditions for an armistice and peace.

She "gives approbation" to the President's "ideas on the rights of the peoples of Austria-Hungary, especially the rights of the Czecho-Slavs and the Jugo-Slavs," whom she formerly refused to recognize or deal with.

She begs President Wilson to be good enough to take the preparatory steps" for an immediate armistice and peace.

The note was handed by the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister (who has just succeeded Baron Burian) Sunday to the Austro-Hungarian minister to Sweden for transmission through the Swedish government to President Wilson.

The text of the note as received here omits for the first time in the dual monarchy's history the words "imperial and royal" as a prefix to "government." It speaks throughout of the "Austro-Hungarian government."

Amsterdam, Oct. 29.—Austria's note to President Wilson was received in Berlin with an almost stoical indifference, late dispatches from the German capital last night show.

It appears that the German public had practically conciliated itself beforehand with a drifting apart of the two main central powers, and even an unconditional Austrian surrender would cause small surprise or sensation. In both empires a "jig-is-up" atmosphere is laying heavily upon the populations, especially in the cities and between the lines of German and Austrian news dispatches there is an ever-recurring note that may be summed up in the words "the sooner the better."

WILL REOPEN TOMORROW

Episcopal High and Theological Seminary to Resume Studies Tomorrow—Were Closed During "Flu" Epidemic.

Both the Episcopal Theological Seminary and High School will re-open tomorrow, after being closed on account of the influenza. The High School closed four weeks ago so that it might safeguard the boys from that epidemic. About twenty-five boys were attacked with it, but all the cases were comparatively mild and there were no deaths.

The Seminary suspended its lectures nearly two weeks ago so that the students might give assistance in nursing the sick and in helping in other necessary ways during the dearth of nurses and hospital workers in this and other cities. There has been no case of influenza at the Seminary.

There have been some cases on the Hill outside the Seminary. Among these has been Mr. Victor Donaldson.

Services will be regularly resumed at the Seminary Chapel and all the Missions Sunday.

DUMMY AS A SPEED CURE

Children Make Autoist Stop in Belief He Had Killed One.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 29.—After he had knocked down and run over the form of a child, a chauffeur, terror-stricken, leaped from his automobile at Larimer avenue and Deary street Saturday night and rushed to where the "body" was lying. He discovered that it was a dummy. Children in that district are unable to play in Larimer avenue because of reckless autoists, and one of them said they were making an effort to cure drivers of exceeding the speed limit.

When the automobile first was seen running at a terrific speed the children stood on the sidewalk and cried, "Get out of the street." The chauffeur sounded the horn, but did not slacken speed. When close to the object he applied the emergency brake, which caused the machine to skid into the "child," knocking it down and running over it, while three other occupants of the car screamed, under the impression that a child had been killed.

ALLIES MAKE NEW GAINS

Austro-Hungarian Front Shattered—Sixteen Thousand Prisoners Taken —Americans Forging Ahead.

In France, Italy, Turkey and the Balkans the Allies have made new gains.

The Austro-Hungarian front on the Piave river sector of the Italian front has been shattered, the Italians and British advancing four miles east of the stream and capturing numerous villages. Sixteen thousand prisoners were taken.

In Turkey the British are advancing in both Palestine and Mesopotamia, having started a new drive in the latter zone of operations. In the Holy Land, General Allenby's forces are advancing north of Aleppo. In Mesopotamia the Turks are falling back in the direction of Mosul.

The Americans are again going ahead on both sides of the Meuse river and are violently shelling German positions and lines of communication with powerful long range guns.

The Americans advanced about a mile in their new attack.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my beloved wife, Madeline F. Butcher, who died October 27th, 1918.

"Why should we call it death,
This calm, sweet sleep of peace;
When the tired head in slumber rests,
And all of life's sorrows cease.
"This beautiful passing away
From the shadow and gloom of night,
Into the glory of Paradise,
Gleaming with wondrous light.
"Tis but drifting away from grief,
Laying all burdens down,
Setting aside the cross of care,
To wear evermore his crown.
"Sleep on, sleep on and rest,
At the close of earth's weary day;
Oh, call it not death but life—
"This beautiful passing away."

By her husband, Harry A. Butcher.

PRESIDENT HITS BACK

Scores G. O. P. Attempt to Bend Momentous Issues to Partisan Ends.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Wilson replied to Republican contentions that the third of his 14 peace terms is a free trade plank by explaining that in demanding the removal of economic barriers he meant to suggest no restriction upon internal economic policies, but only that whatever tariff high or low, any nation might deem necessary, it should apply equally to all foreign nations.

The President made the explanation in a letter to Senator Simmons, of North Carolina chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, who had written him asking for a statement "because certain Republican leaders are attempting to make partisan use" of the paragraph.

"Weapons of economic discipline and punishment," the President wrote, should be left to the joint action of all nations for the purpose of punishing those who will not submit to a general program of justice and equality."

He added that to inject the bogey of free trade, which is not involved at all, was to attempt to divert the mind of the nation from a broad principle of a durable peace, and that it was lamentable that momentuous issues of this solemn hour should be seized upon in an effort to bend them to partisan service.

SUGAR TO BE PLENTIFUL

Cuban Crop Biggest Ever and Imports Increase.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—The imports of duitable raw sugar at this port since the beginning of the year have been 840,000,000 pounds, a considerable gain over the same period last year. The total shipments have been much larger, the consignments from Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands coming in free of duty not being included in the duitable figures.

Last season's crop of Cuban sugar was the largest ever known to have been produced on the island. This year's crop, Government's experts state, will be still larger, estimated at 3,446,000 tons, nearly half a million tons larger than last year's yield.

The shipment of the new crop of Cuban sugar will begin in December At least two per cent of the entire crop will be delivered at the different North Atlantic ports during the month. The entire crop has been purchased by the United States Government on the basis of 5 1-2 cents per pound, free on board. The price has been fixed at 5.85 cents a ponnd, delivered. According to the arrangements made, the sugar is to be shipped in bags of 325 pounds each.

It is expected that this year the Virgin Island will have sugar to ship to this country which will likely come in free of duty.

EPIDEMIC AT LYNCHBURG

Decrease in New Cases During the Last Four Days.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 29.—The influenza situation in Lynchburg during the 24 hours preceding this report shows a continued improvement, despite the fact that a few more cases were reported to the health department than in the 24 hours previous. The deaths dropped to seven, while 35 new cases were reported, an increase of three as compared with the previous day. In the last four days the new cases have aggregated 178, which is a decided drop when compared with the four days prior to this period.

The state epileptic colony now has about 75 cases, and there have been two deaths there, one of the victims being an attendant in the institution. The "flu" has spread very rapidly in that institution, as it was several weeks before the first case was noted there after it had been epidemic in Lynchburg.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our relatives and friends and also to the employes of the Corby Baking Company for the kindness shown at the death of our beloved daughter, Ella Louise Hall and also for the beautiful floral tributes and cars.

By her mother and father.

BAN LIFTED SUNDAY

Churches to Reopen For Services Sunday—Movies, Schools and Other Places Closed as a Result of the Recent Epidemic Will Reopen Monday—Orders to This Effect Issued Today.

Formal orders for the reopening of the churches of this city Sunday next today were issued by Dr. H. C. Robles, acting health medical officer in charge, who also at the time issued orders for the reopening of the schools and moving picture establishments and other places closed as a result of the recent epidemic.

The ban after being put on these places a month ago will, therefore, be lifted Sunday and Monday. News to this effect will be received with general satisfaction by the citizens generally.

Every place in the city that was ordered closed promptly complied with the order and there was no grumbling on the part of anyone.

The epidemic in Alexandria has about run its course and comparatively few new cases have been reported here and a majority of persons ill with the disease are rapidly recovering.

The health department has given instructions regarding the disinfecting of the churches, schools, moving picture establishments and other places closed so that there will be no danger of persons attending when these places are reopened next Sunday and Monday.

The order for closing the foregoing the schools were closed October 3.

The schools were closed October 3

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Four Persons Die During Past Twenty-Four Hours.

Miss Jessica Callahan, twenty-six years old, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H Callahan, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of her parents, 213 South Fairfax street. Death was due to pneumonia.

Miss Callahan several weeks ago was one of the first of about half a dozen women in this city who responded to the appeal issued for volunteers to nurse the soldiers stricken with influenza at Camp Humphreyes She went to that camp and after being there but a few days was taken ill and compelled to return to her home. Everything known to medical science was resorted to, without avail influenza rapidly developed into pneumonia. Her condition became critical a few days ago and she never rallied.

Miss Callahan was an active worker in Masonic circles and also in Martha Washington Chapter No. 42, Order of Eastern Star. She was formerly secretary of that organization and at the time of her death she held the office of conductress of that order.

Miss Callahan had a wide circle of friends who will regret to hear of her death and she was justly popular among members of the younger set of the city.

In addition to her parents she is survived by three sisters and a brother.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Stephen M. Ridgely, seventy-nine years old, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Gorman Ridgely, 108 South Columbus street. The deceased was a retired farmer and was a native of Howard county, Md. Besides his sister in this city he is survived by a son Stephen Ridgely, now in France and a daughter, Mrs. C. M. Parks, Covington, Ky. The body will be taken to Howard county, Md., for burial.

Miss Virginia Kirby died this morning at the residenceof her sister, Mrs John. R. West, 625 South Alfred street. The body will be shipped to Baltimore for burial.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harry Butcher will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. George E. Laycock, 416 South Lee street.

Martin W. Williams, two months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Williams, of 227 North Pitt street, died yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital of pneumonia. The body was taken to his parents' residence, 227 North Pitt street and prepared for burial.

WAR SAVING STAMPS

These Stamps Daily Increase in Value —The 1918 Issue Will be Redeemed January 1, 1923. If Every Citizen Purchases $16.84 Alexandria Will Go "Over the Top."

Every War Savings Stamp increases in value each month, and they cannot depreciate because the Government of the United States guarantees to redeem them at a fixed price at its post offices throughout the Country.

The attention of the public is particularly directed to the following points:

1. A war savings stamp can be bought in October for $4.21, In November for $4.22, and in December for $4.23.

2. The entire issue of war savings stamps for the year 1918 will be redeemed on January 1, 1923, at five dollars for each stamp, the rate of interest being four per cent, compounded quarterly; in other words, interest is allowed on interest to those who hold them until maturity.

3. War Savings Stamps will be the first war obligation of the United States Government to be paid, as they will mature on January 1, 1923, long before any of the Liberty Loan Bonds are due.

4. Each war savings stamp increases in value one cent each month, and they will be paid at the post office in ten days notice, if it becomes necessary for the owner to have the money before maturity, so that an investment of $84.20 now will bring the investor $86.60 in twelve months.

5. No investment in the world could be safer, and no investment could be better guaranteed than War Savings Stamps.

6. No one person is allowed to acquire more than one thousand dollars in war savings stamps, at a cost of $842.00 if bought in October, 844.00 if bought in November, or 846.00 if bought in December. Every person in a firm or in a family, however, can buy to this limit.

7. The sum of $16.84 invested in twenty dollars face value of War Savings Stamps by every citizen of Alexandria will carry this City safely "over the top."

8. Your Country needs the money, and your patriotism as well as your pride in your City should impel every one to buy to the utmost ability.

9. Don't put it off, but begin to buy now, and let every one take up the pledges which they made several months ago and which are payable at the various banks in this city.

It is expected that the work of drafting the new registrants will be begun next week.

It is expected that the older men will be sent their questionnaires shortly in order that the men may be classified just as soon as possible, and be in readiness for call after the younger men have been sent to camp.

LETTING WELL ENOUGH ALONE

Next Friday, November 1st, E. F. Price, our present Auditor, will have served this city thirty-three years and four months—over a third of a century. Other municipal officers of Alexandria have also served long terms and are still in business at the old stands. These faithful officers have, very properly, from time to time been elected by the people to succeed themselves. The late James F. Webster, captain and at other times chief of the police force, served uninterruptedly from 1870 up to the time of his death in 1910.

The term of the Auditor will expire in January, 1922, and should he continue in the land of the living, and we all hope he may, he will have served in his official position thirty-six years and six months.

This length of service has no parallel, and is without precedent in without precedent in Alexandria.

Our other city officials have long been continued in the positions they will fill so satisfactorily.

The above is a creditable showing, exhibiting as it does the manner in which Alexandria's municipal affairs are conducted. When good officials have been secured they remain in their positions, should they desire to do so, as long as they wish.

During all these years there have, of course, been attempts at times on the part of certain aspirants to set aside some of these officials, and while in some cases the contests have been lively and the outcome uncertain, the people have invariably voted for those who have been thoroughly tested and retained them in their respective positions.

Apart from the contests for Mayor and the last Congressional election there have been few strenuous campaigns in Alexandria or this district for many years. The people on that occasion rose as in the majesty of their might and returned our present Member of Congress by a large majority.

We never hear of so-called "reform candidates" or "potato-bug" tickets in our old city at present. We select the proper men to fill public positions, and as long as they perform their respective duties satisfactorily they are kept in the harness for many years.

DEATH OF MISS CALLAHAN

When our heads are bowed with woe,
When our bitter tears overflow,
When we mourn the lost, the dear.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the relatives and friends of Miss Jessica Callahan, who died at an early hour this morning after a protracted illness. The young woman, deservedly popular with all who knew her, was stricken a few weeks ago by Spanish influenza while she was engaged in performing her duty as a nurse at Camp Humphreys at which place the epidemic was making fearful havoc. With other patriotic young women Miss Callahan recognized that she should do all she could at this critical juncture, and leaving her home she reported at the camp for duty. The grim destroyer was on her path then, and she saw numbers of soldiers stricken at the camp pass away, unaware of the fact that death had also marked her for his own.

Miss Callahan was of a quiet retiring nature, and her demise at the portals of womanhood has brought forth much regret.

During the prevalence of the fearful scourge a number of the young of Alexandrian have been cut down and distress has been brought to a numbers of homes where a few weeks ago there was nothing apparent to cause apprehension.

But little can be said towards gilding these dispensations of nature. It is appointed unto all once to die: this is the fiat from which there is no appeal. Then

Lay her in the earth,
And from her fair unpolluted flesh
May violets spring.

The above will apply to others who have relinquished the burdens of life at an age when joy and fond anticipations are most in evidence.

LAST HOURS OF AUTOCRACY

Austria's collapse, ordained by domestic convulsions and accelerated by successive military disasters, has come and her unconditional surrender is now a matter of days, according to the view of officials in Washington, following the receipt of dispatches stating that the Austro-Hungarian Government has accepted the President's peace terms and has asked for an armistice on all fronts.

The readiness of the Austrians to put into effect the peace conditions laid down in the President's last note, that is, to grant virtual sovereignty to the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs is not as significant of defeat as is her willingness to make a truce with her enemies. For every official of the Austrian Government and every officer of the Austrian army knows that the terms of this truce will be dictated by the Allied military commanders and that they will have the effect of totally disarming Austria.

Notwithstanding this certain knowledge, the Austrians are still sueing for an armistice which will be drawn in the headquarters of Marshal Foch and which will leave nothing unsaid on the subject of surrender. They are doing it with the very recent example of doing it inspite of warnings and threats which undoubtedly are being thundered at them from Berlin.

Austria's capitulation makes the end of the war, as some one has said, not only in sight, but in reach.

President Wilson's last note to the German Government contained words of condemnation which no nation with any capacity left for resentment could fail to resent. Yet the German note in reply, published yesterday morning, ignores this affront. The Hohenzollerns, like the Hapsburgs, are humbled

Autocracy, builded upon militarism, is tottering, base and monument alike. Austria has surrendered unconditionally. Let us keep up the pressure on Germany until she, too, shall be completely overthrown.

We may have peace within the month. It may not come for the next year. But this we do know—that we are drawing nearer peace day by day, and that when it does come it will mean that the enemy has surrendered unconditionally.

THOSE WHO SEEK REVENGE

Foch, Haig and Pershing are built of different stuff and trained in a different school from Hindenburg and Ludendorff, and can be trusted not to sully the glory they have won by needless retaliation on those whose sin consists only in following such leaders as have been given to them. Already, however, it is suggested, we are beginning to hear, from those whose patriotism is of a largely vocal quality, a harsh, insensate cry for revenge. It does not come from the men who are serving in France, but from those who are living, quite safely and comfortably, at home. It is echoed occasionally in the press, and sometimes even in the pulpits of those who have forgotten the teachings of the Master they profess to serve. Such unworthy expressions smack too much of the Hun. "As I see it," says a recent English writer, "the more you beat Fritz by becoming like him, the more he has won."

Revenge in kind, with no other object than the desire to repay past evil with evil to come, is a grim travesty of all that makes this war worth winning. Retaliation for a definite and salutary purpose, such as the preservation of what is left of Belgium, is another matter. That is the stern justice of the executioner, carried out to protect society, not to wreak a personal hatred. Belgium must be fully safeguarded, by the most drastic punishments if such be necessary; but it would be a barren victory if, when the war is over, we had absorbed Prussian ideals.

Crews of vessels arriving at Stavanger from Karmo Island report that several German submarines flying a white flag at their mastheads, passed the island Saturday, bound south, the Morgenbladet asserts. The submarines are believed to have been returning home from their stations.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Field Marshal Hindenburg's resignation, reported Sunday, has not yet been accepted by the Kaiser, according to dispatches.

The British press interprets the Austro-Hungarian note to President Wilson as marking a definite break between Austria and Germany.

A dispatch from London says it is permissible to state that the allied armistice terms have been framed. An announcement of the terms is expected to be forthcoming before Thursday.

The Austro-Germans have abandoned the town of Kraguievatz, 55 miles southeast of Belgrade, to the Allied troops during rear-guard fighting, according to an official statement from Austro-Hungarian general headquarters.

Announcement was made in the British House of Commons yesterday that since the beginning of the war British troops have taken 327,416 enemy combatant prisoners, including 264,242 Germans. There are 97,000 German combatant prisoners in the United Kingdom at the present time.

Victor L. Berger, who was the first Socialist elected to Congress, Louis A. Arnold, Edmund T. Nelms, Leon Krzycki, and Oscar Ameringer, of Socialist leaders, were arrested yesterday in Milwaukee for alleged violation of the espionage act.

Former Senator Eugene Hale, 82 years old, for many years one of the most prominent figures in Congress died Sunday at his home, in Washington, after a long illness. Senator Hale was chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs for many years.

Latest word from the Piave front is that the Italians and British have advanced four miles on a six-mile front, taking 7,000 prisoners. The Italians crossed the Piave on a twelve-mile front north of Montello. The bridging operations were laborious and difficult. The advance is reported continuing satisfactorily.

It is persistently reported that riots are of daily occurrence in various parts of Germany, resulting in conflicts with the police and loss of life. The lack of raw material, especially for explosives, is seriously hampering munition works. It is stated that Krupps have been compelled to dismiss many workers

"It is impossible as yet to measure the German retreat before the armies of Gens. Debeny, Mangin, Guillaucet between the Oise, and the Aisne," says L'Information of Paris. "Already the retreat is taking on a character of disorder, despite the engagement of fresh German divisions at the critical points. The Guise-Marle Railroad has been cut by French cavalry and the fall of Guise is assured.

Movement of selective service men to training camps will be resumed next week, it became known at the office of the Provost Marshal General yesterday. The first call will be announced Sunday, but whether the former program of 250,000 a month to camp will be resumd or an increased program put into effect is not yet known outside the offices of the General Staff. Unofficial intimations that all of the Class 1 men up to 45 years will be in the army by January 1 are heard. The first men to be called are the men notified to report to camp on the last two calls, both of which were canceled.

TONE MORE APPROPRIATE

Latest German Note Better, London Press Opinion.

London, Oct. 29.—The opinion generally expressed by the British press is that the latest German note strikes a more appropriate tone. Certain doubts, however, are expressed in some British papers as to the thoroughness of the democratic changes in German control, and it is suggested that the sword still remains in the hands of the autocracy.

The Daily Chronicle says: "The German reply is in effect an unqualified acceptance. President Wilson has laid down the principle that an armistice must be on terms which would preclude Germany from renewing hostilities. Dr. Solf gives the principle his silent consent when, without questioning it, he renews his request for an armistice and asks that detailed terms be specified.

"Nothing remans but for the associated powers to announce without delay the program of naval and military measures which in the judgment of Admiral Wemyss, Marshal Foch and their coadjutors, the armistice necessitates.

"It would be possible, of course, for Germany to object to details after she had agreed to the principles, but it is not likely. If her situation were other than desperate she would never have gone so far as she has. One has only to read the messages from Austria-Hungary to see that the whole of her power in Eastern Europe is collapsing."

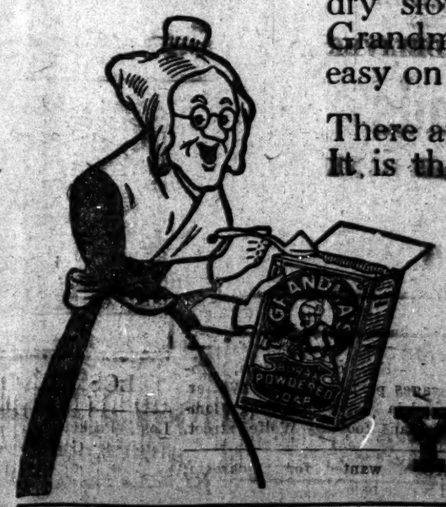
Wash the Socks You Knit With GRANDMA'S Powdered SOAP

WOOLEN SOCKS will not shrink, get hard or knot up when washed with Grandma. No more heartaches after spending hours knitting a pair of socks and then having them ruined by washing with an inferior soap.

GRANDMA'S Powdered SOAP

Follow these instructions and you will never have any trouble: Sprinkle some Grandma in luke warm water—wonderful suds in an instant. Wash the socks in this water then rinse in clear, luke warm water. After rinsing shake out well (do not wring) then hang up to dry slowly. Socks washed this way with Grandma are sure to be soft and fluffy and easy on the feet.



There are hundreds of other uses for Grandma. It is the greatest "all-round" household soap of the age and is by far the most economical. It's powdered—you measure it out with a spoon—no waste. Try it today.

CONTROL OF CONGRESS

Campaign Switched to the Floor of the United States Senate

The campaign for the control of the next Congress was switched yesterday to the floor of the Senate. The barriers against criticism of the President and his announced principles of peace were thrown down by the Republicans in speeches attacking not only those principles of settlement, but the appeal made by the President for the election of a Congress in sympathy with him.

Administration Senators came back with speeches vigorously defending the President and placing the responsibility for the injection of politics into the war upon the shoulders of the Republicans. The oratorical battle waged all day with but a brief intermission, during which time Senator Martin managed to secure the adoption of the conference report on the $6,000,000,000 urgent deficiency measure so that it can go to the President to be signed.

SLAYER WOULD FIGHT HUNS

"No Time to Kill Americans in the Chair," is His Contention.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 29.—Alexander Dale, of Gilberton, convicted of murder in the first degree, is making a plea that he be allowed to go and fight in the front trenches in France, where he has two brothers. "This is no time to kill young Americans in the electric chair," he says.

Dale, who is 28 years of age, occupies a peculiar position under the law. He was sentenced to death in the chair and appealed to the Supreme Court. The only action of the latter was to find a technical flaw in his sentence, which did not provide that, if he was not shocked to death on the first application of electricity, additional shocks could be applied. At the next session of Court Judge Bechtel again will sentence Dale to the chair and will remedy this defect. Dale's attorneys say they then will again appeal to the Supreme Court.

Dale killed his friend, Charles Swartz, and alleges the wife of the murdered man urged him to the deed. After his case is terminated that of Mrs. Swartz will be considered.

PILOT STRANGLES BRIDE

Faithless, He Says After Tragedy in Baltimore Hotel.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 29.—Driven to madness by jealousy of his bride of three days, Carlisle P. Webster, 34 years old, a mariner of Deals Island, strangled her to death in their bridal chamber in the Hotel Belvedere and then swallowed five mercury tablets, which may cause his death.

The bride, who was Miss Bernice Broughton Chaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chaney, was 20 years old. On the eve of her wedding last Friday morning she had dreamed that Webster had tried to murder her. Webster very recently was divorced from Mrs. Virginia Callahan Webster, of Salisbury, who is the mother of two children, and who has since married again.

A note scribbled on the hotel stationery and signed by Webster charged his bride with unfaithfulness. The girl's relatives and friends, however, claim she was blameless and merely the victim of insane jealousy, strong symptoms of which Webster had evidenced during their courtship, which extended back to their meeting fourteen months ago.

At the Mercy Hospital, where he lies at the point of death, Webster admitted he had slain his bride and showed no signs of remorse, simply repeating that he found her faithless, and that they were both "square with the world."

"And I loved her so," he said again and again. "I loved her as much as any man could love a woman."

Webster is a pilot, employed on the steamer Pocomoke of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic line.

RULERS MOTOR TO BRUGES

Enthusiasm Reigns Among Citizens When They Are Recognized.

London, Oct. 29.—The King and Queen of Belgium paid a formal visit to Bruges on Friday. The Times correspondent says:

"Both the King and Queen had already visited Bruges informally on Monday last when they arrived by motor-car and informants tell me, that when their presence was then discovered the people were almost delirious with joy.

"On Friday their majesties, with Prince Leopold, rode in on horseback, the King and prince in uniform, the Queen in white. Their progress through the streets was accompanied by one continuous tumult of ecstatic enthusiasm, the crowds being with difficulty kept within bounds by the military.

"Finally after the royal family had dismounted and ascended the steps of the governor's house in the great square, the people would no longer be restrained.

"It was, an unforgetable scene when, as if by one impulse, the populace grew out of hand and from all sides at once swept forward, carrying the lines of guards with it in one universal rush to get near the sovereign."

GERMAN-MADE TOYS

Things began to happen right soon after the arrival of several hundred tons of German-made toys in New York the other day. Women, especially mothers of children at an age to be interested in toys, were indignant that there should be an attempt to promote the sale of goods from the enemy's country while we are in the midst of war. Very soon their organizations demanded the attention of the consignees of the unwelcome cargo.

The goods arrived via Holland. The consignees, a mail-order jobbing house, insisted they would have nothing to do with the toys. The order for them had been placed in 1914 (prior to the war), it was asserted. In some manner, the shipment appeared to have been lost. Now that the toys had appeared, four years behind schedule, the firm declined to handle them or assume any responsibility for them. Members of the firm were disposed to believe that the toys had been allowed by the German government to come forward at this particular time for the double purpose of saving trade and, incidentally, backing up the diplomatic bid for peace.

But the women were even more frankly outspoken as to their own course. Miss Elizabeth Marbury voiced the opposition of the women thus:

"The destruction of German militarism has been frequently stated as the allied aim in this war. We are only beginning to comprehend that German militarism is but the tool of German economic war domination. This dumping of goods into neutral countries is a strategic move on Germany's part, and the only way to retaliate for German savagery, the only way to recompense in any degree the victims of German brutality for the horrors they have suffered, the only protest against barbarism that will avail anything for the human race is for the women of America to refuse to buy goods made in Germany, whether so marked or not."

And, just to lend emphasis, other women announced that they had placed a watch upon the goods now stored in warehouses; that they will use every available peaceable means to prevent the sale of the toys, and, failing in this, they expect to hold an up-to-the minute tea party of the kind made famous in Boston during the revolution.—(Richmond Virginian.
